Live! By Loews, St. Louis

The “For The Common Good Awards” luncheon, honors the achievements of volunteers and community partners.

“For The Common Good” annually attracts 200+ attendees from the legal community, nonprofit agencies, law schools, corporate counsel, judiciary, and pro bono volunteers.

Justice Speaks with Nina Totenberg

Friday, October 13, 2023, 11:00am - 2:00pm
Marriott St. Louis Grand, St. Louis

Justice Speaks is an annual celebration of equal access to justice. This year the event will be presented as a luncheon, followed by a conversation with NPR's celebrated Legal Affairs Correspondent, Nina Totenberg, moderated by Rachel Lippmann of St. Louis Public Radio.

One of the country's most respected journalists, Nina Totenberg is National Public Radio's award-winning legal affairs correspondent. With more than 40 years' experience at NPR, her reports are regularly featured on NPR's All Things Considered, Morning Edition, and Weekend Edition.

Nina has won every major journalism award in broadcasting and holds the distinction of being the first radio journalist to have won the National Press Foundation's "Broadcaster of the Year" award.

A tribute and testament to her nearly 50-year close friendship with Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg, Nina's memoir, Dinners With Ruth: A Memoir on the Power of Friendships, was published in September of 2022.
